Get the skinny on looking slimmer with these dressing do's and don'ts.

{Slimming Solids}

Dressing in the same hue head to toe elongates your body, creating a more slender silhouette. Think Tank blazer, Lynn Ritchie tank and Barbara Lesser Fibers gaucho pants available at Marta's, Ellisville, 636.227.8831.

{Lengthening Lines}

Shiny satin adds pounds to your frame by reflecting light, making you look larger. Opt instead for vertical lines and materials such as knits, wool and cotton. G Wheels top and Spanner skirt from Merle Freed, Ladue, 314.997.3300.

{Camouflaging Cuts}

Wrap dresses are the ultimate universally flattering style, since they accentuate the bust while cinching the waist. Diane von Furstenberg wrap dress available at The Bassford Shops, Chesterfield, 636.728.1678.

Get Sassy!

Nothing foils a fitted top more than visible lines or unbecoming bulges created by an ill-fitting bra—a.k.a. back fat. The Sassybax Solution—a revolutionary bra backed by celebs like singer/actress Vanessa Williams and makeup maven Bobbi Brown—corrects these concerns with a larger back strap and higher arm holes to smooth the back for a sexier, more svelte shape.
